Would you like to make a difference?

We offer a free an independent service supporting those living with memory loss or dementia

Dementia Advocacy Service

Why volunteer with Swan?

You can learn new skills, meet new people and even advance your career with nationally recognised qualifications and increased confidence

Volunteering connects you to others' as you instantly become part of our wonderful friendly team of dedicated and passionate people

Everything we do has a direct positive impact on a person's life by supporting them to express their views and choices; you can be part of that positivity working alongside people in your community

We have lots of volunteering opportunities available within marketing, fundraising and administration, as well as advocacy roles working directly with people who use our service

Whether you have a lot or a little time to give we would love to hear from you

About our service

We will partner with people to provide a flexible and accessible service which empowers them to express their view and wishes, and to record their decisions. We will support them to create a record which shares their views and wishes with those who may need to understand them in the future.

“Volunteering has put some much needed routine back into my week”
